TOWN CENTER - PAUL ODE TRAIL AND FRED WOLFE PARK

Orange, CT

The trail is named for Paul Ode who, as Chairman of the Conservation Commission, was responsible for organizing the development of this trail behind the High Plains Community Center.

The orange trail starts behind the Rotary Cuzzocreo Memorial Pavilion and drops steeply to the Indian River through a mixed hardwood and hemlock forest. Near the bottom it bears left and returns to the pavilion up the exit to Lambert Road. The white trail continues down to the Indian River, across a small stream and then up under the overhead lines across the power right-of-way. It then continues up through mixed hardwoods to several large sycamore trees which define the portal to the open field south of High Plains, and thence back to the Pavilion. The length of the trail is approximately 2/3 of a mile. A trail guide is available. There is a stone-dust, level walking track 4/10 mile long to the north of the Community Center, around the Country Fair Grounds.

Fred Wolfe Park, named for a man who spent many years in public service in the Town of Orange, is an example of an old farm which was not maintained. For approximately 25 years, it was held by the school district as a possible building site. Soon after acquisition by the Town, four soccer fields were built close to the parking area.

The trail begins at the end of the parking lot straight across the end of a soccer field to the green sign.
